Hi Nagu,

In reading over the revised genotox section, I saw that Sury added a commented in the last table for the Jakab et al., 2010 study suggesting that we may want to add additional results for that study. Could you look at that? If you agree would you add that information in the appropriate cell? I don't know if you would want to add to the synthesis, please feel free if you think that is necessary.

Thanks for your help. Barbara
